Description

Presenting an exciting opportunity in the peaceful village of Erimi, this brand-new semi-detached house offers 163 m² of internal space designed for relaxed contemporary living. Featuring three comfortable bedrooms, two bathrooms, and 1 guest w/c, the residence makes an ideal choice for growing families or professionals seeking space and tranquility.

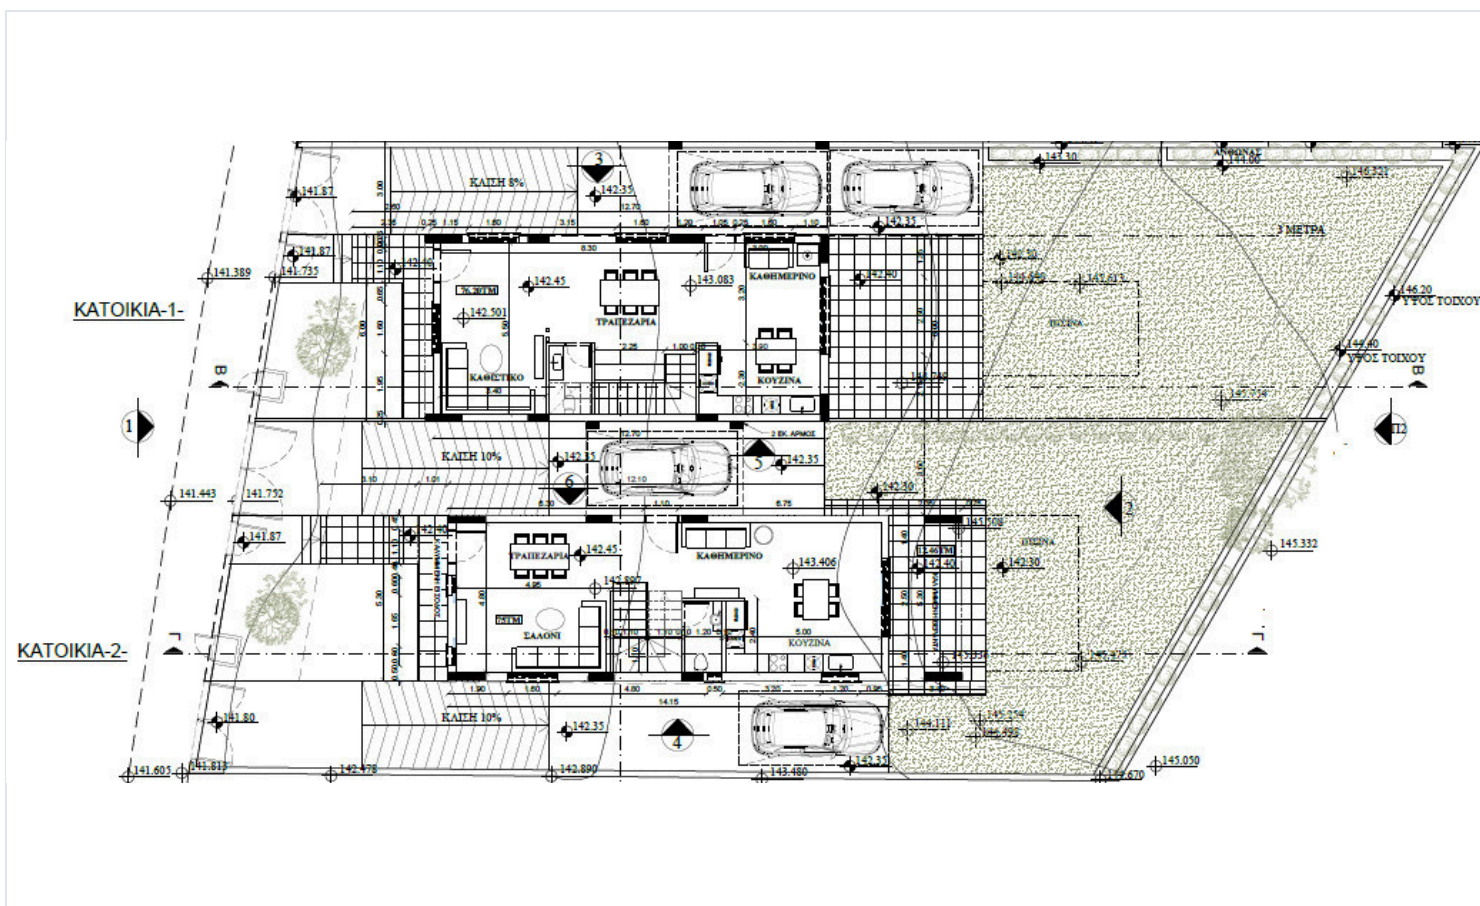

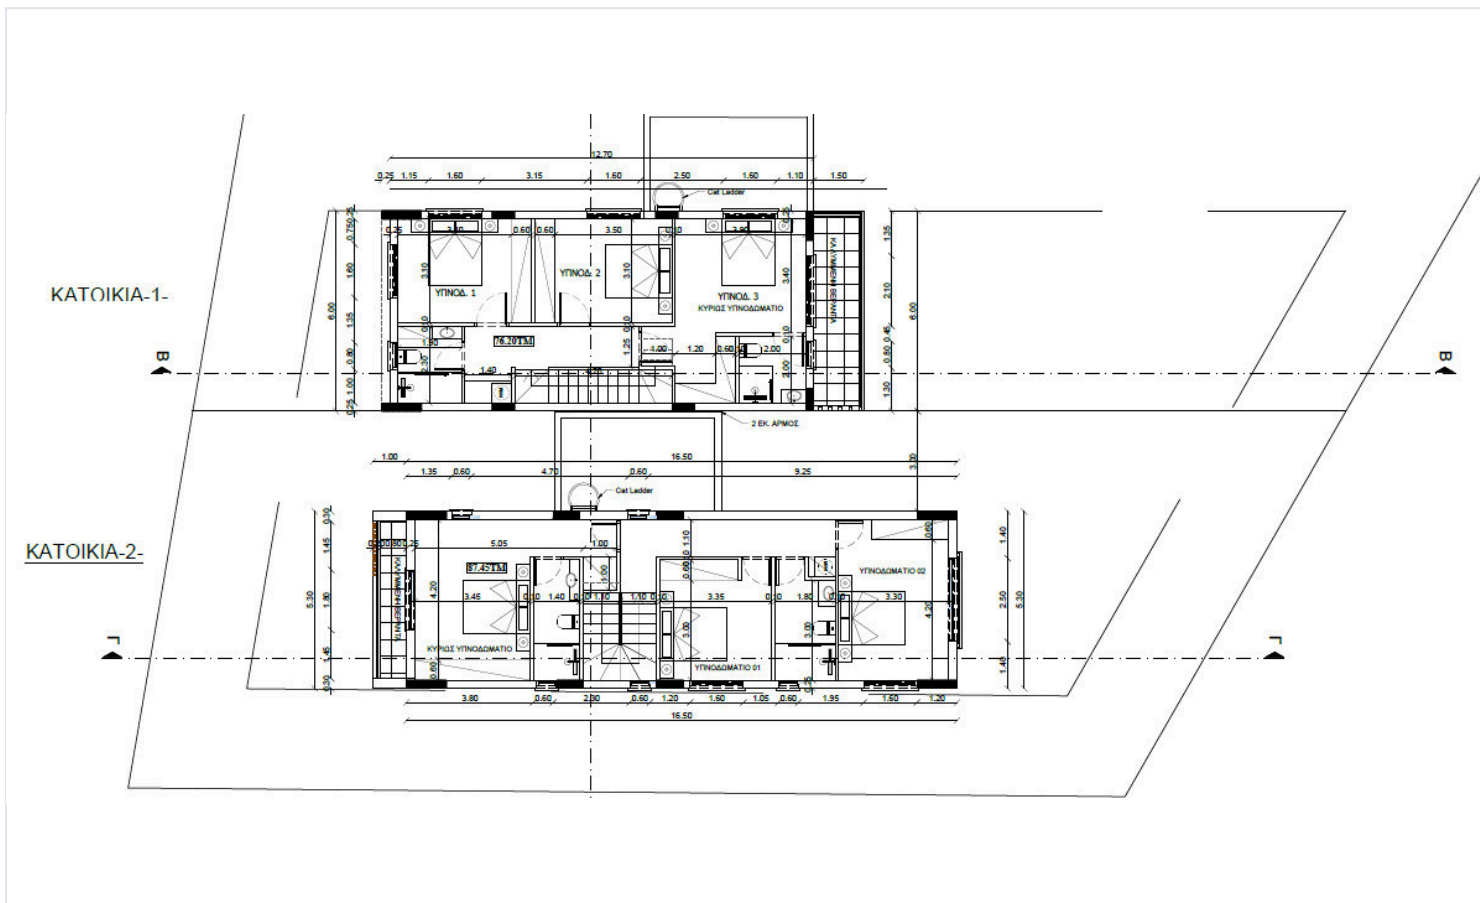

Set within the established community of Erimi, the location balances quiet residential charm with convenient access to regional transport routes and local neighborhood amenities across the Limassol district. It provides an appealing neighborhood rhythm away from the city bustle yet remains closely connected to daily essentials.
